Cycle... Friendly... France

Newsletter Issue: Feb/Mar 2018

Thank You to all our France Show 2018 Fellow Velo Visitors

Our January ended with another France Show at Olympia; as ever it was a great show, with a really friendly and relaxed atmosphere and, lots of French loving people.
The collage above features just a few of the visitors to the Fellow Velo stand; Bert is a great show regular, Peter May was a show guest on the Friday, David Ginola was a surprise public visitor to the show on the Sunday, Alexa came to interview Jane in French for one of her online broadcasts, the Inspector from the Met is planning a charity ride to Nice for C.O.P.S. (www.cutcope.org) and, we'll save proper introductions to Monsieur Talk and Larry for another time (you can find out a little more about Monsieur Talk online at www.amusdelanguagekitchen.com).

Idaho

Fellow Velo Christmas Presents

Last year we had a bespoke cycle tour booking from a lovely family from Boise, Idaho who rode trails between the quiet beauty of Provence Verte and the azure waters of the Med. It now seems that they have set us a homework task to learn what we can about Boise and Idaho as, on their recommendation, we have had a little cluster of tour bookings from the area for cycle tours this summer.
Though the Fellow Velo part, of what must have been some pretty special Christmas Day present openings, may have been just one element of what sound like amazing big trips to Europe, we are really looking forward to welcoming them all to Provence through June and July.
Of course we have yet to meet the families but, that's some of them above in the inset photos.

Fellow Velo Holiday Availability

Our cycling season calendar is booking up but, we still have some dates available, particularly in Provence in May, August and October. If you are thinking of a cycling holiday in France this summer (and don't want to leave it to winning our holiday competitions), just give us a call or send us an email. Jane and Andy, Fellow Velo
