Fellow Velo Website
Our website has now been updated for the 2017 cycling season in France. So many of our customers were looking for bespoke cycling holidays that, we have expanded this service, particularly in Provence, and we have added a page in our Guided Provence section to help with ideas for creating just the kind of holiday that would fulfil cycling dreams.

Website for 2017 now live!

All our pre-set tour options are still available and, we have just made them even more flexible for dates and bookings. This also means that if you see something that you like in our main tours but, would just like to make some small changes to a tour then, just let us know.

You can even mix and match elements within our bespoke itineraries or between these and our main tours. Sometimes it is just for particular weekends that customers want a fully guided part of a package, like through the wider parts of the Camargue or for a special wine-tasting day.
