

A Few Customer Reviews

John and Liz

We had a 5-day tour of Provence, including the dramatic Verdens Gorge (and the climbing that went with it!). Andy and Jane are good company, their preparation in terms of route-planning and accommodation was faultless, and they were unfazed by some last-minute alterations to suit the group. Nothing was too much trouble, and they always seemed to be in the right place for assistance with route-finding and water supplies.

We thoroughly enjoyed our trip and couldn't have been better looked after.

We can recommend Fellow Velo as the perfect choice if you're looking for a bespoke trip and truly excellent service.

I thought about writing this review in ALL CAPS, to emphasize just how much fun we had! It was seriously a trip of a lifetime thanks to Fellow Velo! Fragrant valleys, sun drenched vineyards, village markets, wineries, plus a dip in the Mediterranean!?! It was everything I hoped our trip to Provence would be and so much more. I have never been on a bike tour before this and I found this trip to be just my speed. Jane and Andy have carefully selected each day's bike routes and the overnight accommodations. It was such a treat to wake up to the beautifully prepared breakfasts at the places we stayed. Jane and Andy are awesome and they really went above and beyond to ensure we had a great time. I can't wait to book another trip with Fellow Velo.

For quite a while, my wife Carole and I had been thinking of visiting the Camargue and the eastern regions of Provence on bicycle. There could not possibly have been a better way than through our bike tour with the expert guidance and support of Andy and Jane of Fellow Velo! We have taken several bike tours before, but this was by far the best, thanks to the personalized routes Jane and Andy chose for us. The selected routes met both our love of biking and our desire to enjoy all the charms of the region. Jane and Andy's intimate knowledge of the area allowed them to seek out and recommend precisely those lesser known routes with interesting and varied paths that allowed us to see and experience everything we had hoped. All the hotels and B&Bs where we stayed were charming and comfortable and the lovely breakfasts fortified us for the biking ahead. Jane and Andy also happen to be two of the nicest and kindest people you could ever hope to meet. When I foolishly left my cell phone in an Arles boulangerie, we made a long detour to retrieve it. Now that we are home, the memories of our experience will sustain us until the next Fellow Velo trip we are planning with other friends and members of our family.
