Thank You to all our France Show 2018 Fellow Velo Visitors

Our January special with another France Show at Olympia, as ever it was a great show, with a really friendly and relaxed atmosphere and lots of French loving people. The collage above features just a few of the visitors to the Fellow Velo stand! Bert is a great showman, Peter May was a show gem on the Friday, David Clarke was a wonderful public visitor to the show on the Sunday. Alex came to interview Jane in French for one of her online broadcasts, the Inspector from the Met is planning a charity ride to Nice for C.I.P.S. (www.cips.org) and, we'll have proper introductions to Monsieur Erik and Larry for another time (you can find out a bit more about Monsieur Erik online at www.fellowvelo.com).

Fellow Velo Christmas Presents

Last year we had a fantastic cycle tour booking from a lovely family from Boise, Idaho who rode from between the quiet beauty of Provençe Vels and the quiet beauty of the Mass. If ever there was a family who set us a homework task to learn what we can about Boise and Idaho, as their recommendation, we have had a little cluster of four bookings from the area for cycle tours this summer.

Through the Fellow Velo part, of what must have been some pretty special Christmas Day present openings, they have been just one element of what would be amazing big trips to Europe, we are really looking forward to welcoming them all to Provençe through June and July.

Of course we have yet to meet the families but, that's some of them above in the main photo.

Fellow Velo Holiday Availability

Our cycling season calendar is booking up but, we still have some dates available, particularly in Provençe in May, August and October. If you are thinking of a cycling holiday in France this summer (and don't want to leave it to someone else's holiday competition), just give us a call or send us an email. Jane and Andy, Fellow Velo
