

Your bike needs love too – Happy Valentine's Day

Fellow Velo
Cycle... Friendly... France

Newsletter issue: Feb/Mar 2021

Don't forget your bike this Valentine's Day – taken here feelings true!
Our own Georges and Anatole are featured above on one of their favourite off-road rides close to their summer home in Provence.

As all our customers discover, all Fellow Velo bikes are individually named, usually with a French or French-linked name. We even have bikes that have been named by customers, sometimes recalling the fun they've had or even in memory of cherished family members.

So, when freedom returns to the cycling holiday world, why not treat your Valentine bike to an adventure in France or, come and make new friends with the bikes in our Fellow Velo fleet.
Happy cycling wherever and whenever you can manage it.

Pedalling Poetry or Prose . . .

For Valentine's Day, this newsletter's prose is simply taken from the adjacent photo – the 'L' Line, Tour de France, Paris.
Fellow Velo has a great route that carries you deep into the heart of the City of Light and, you could complete a tour with a truly exhilarating guided ride around the city – see our Paris by Paper Plane Tour for more details.
